

Basic Course for ILS/DME

This Course introduces a basic information about Instrument Landing System ILS, as a part of navigation aids systems located in airports, verify the importance of the system, system components and related functions.

Course duration

Two days (12 Hours).

Target audience:

New ATSEP from Air Navigation System Engineering Sector

Language:

The course is provided either in Arabic or English Language.

Module Structure:

- Introduction to navigation aids.
- Importance of ILS in airports.
- Function description of ILS components:
 1. Localizer
 2. Glide slope
 3. Markers.
 4. Distance Measuring Equipment.
- ILS/DME's Equipment position and coverage.

Course price / trainee: 300 $